

Name:

Date:

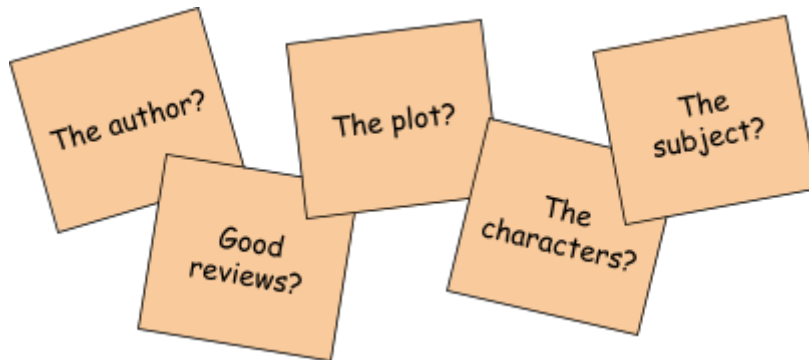

Grades 4-5 Guided Reading

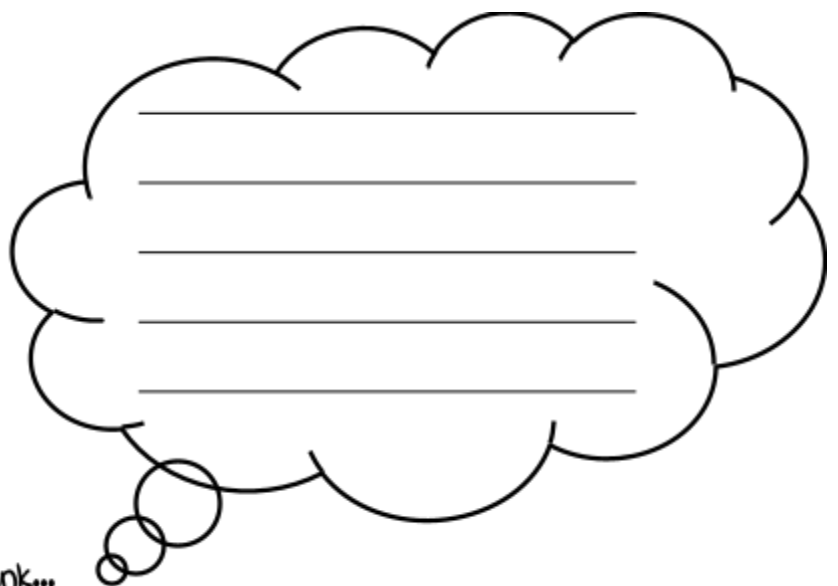

Directions: As you continue throughout your book, keep filling in answers to the following questions.

Before Starting:

- 1) Based on what you know, what most excites or interests you about the book?

- 2) State one prediction you have (this could be about one of the characters, the plot, or anything else you can think of).

Beginning of the book:

After reading a few chapters, answer these questions:

- 1) Name all of the main characters you can think of and write two character traits that they each have. (Examples of character traits: smart, funny, mean, scared).

○ _____

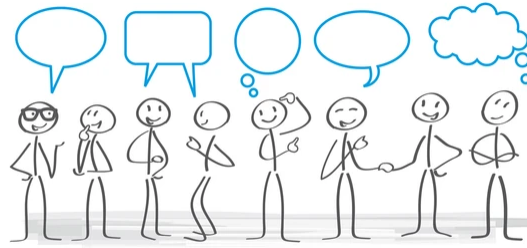

○ _____

○ _____

○ _____

2) Did you notice any supporting characters? Who are they?

shutterstock.com · 576194491

3) What is one of the main storylines in the book so far?

4) What is the theme in the book so far?

"A theme is a universal idea, lesson, or message explored throughout a work of literature"
-Litcharts.com

5) Where does the story take place?

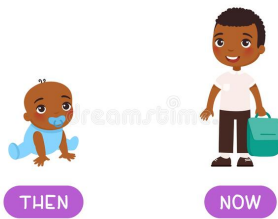

6) Do you see any conflict between characters or in the book as a whole?

"Conflict is a literary element that involves a struggle between two opposing forces"
-Literarydevices.net

Halfway through the book:

1) Have you seen any changes in the characters (for example, how they talk or act)?

2) How has the story shifted from the beginning of the book?

3) Is the conflict mostly the same or has it changed and how?

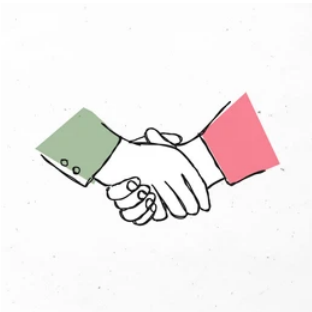

End of the book:

© CanStockPhoto.com - csp12052740

1) Compare the main character's actions, thoughts, and values from the beginning of the book versus now.

2) How were the conflicts in the book solved?

shutterstock.com · 1903069144

3) Do you see any connections between yourself and the character or their world?

